

PROSTAFORUM 2022

PRAGUE
24. NOVEMBER
2022

Time to implement individualised organised prostate cancer early detection:

WHAT DOES EVIDENCE SAY?

Institute of Clinical and Experimental Medicine
Videňská 1958, 140 21 Prague 4

24/11/2022
1pm–6pm

PROGRAM

13:00–14:50 | Session 1

- V. Válek, Minister of Health of the Czech Republic: Welcome
- M. Babjuk: Why we need organised early detection of prostate cancer?
- L. Dušek: The Czech National Cancer Program: preparedness for organised prostate cancer screening
- M. Roobol: What is the evidence about prostate cancer screening?
- H. v. Poppel: Risk-stratified early detection for prostate cancer – the EAU approach
- O. Bratt: Implementing regional population-based organised prostate cancer testing programmes in Sweden
- Discussion

14:50–15:20 | Coffee break

PROSTAFORUM 2022

PRAGUE
24. NOVEMBER
2022

Time to implement individualised organised prostate cancer early detection:

WHAT DOES EVIDENCE SAY?

15:20–16:30 | Session 2

- O. Májek: Czech national data on prostate cancer in view of potential effect of organised screening
- R. Zachoval: How to implement individualised prostate cancer early detection in Czechia?
- J. Ferda: The role of a radiologist in prostate cancer diagnosis and early detection
- Discussion

16:30–16:50 | Coffee break

16:50–17:50 | Session 3

- Panel discussion (moderated by M. Babjuk, O. Májek)
- Closing

Registration: www.prostaforum.eu

You can join us for free in person, or virtually.
The conference will be held in both Czech and English.